GAME DESCRIPTION

The "Winner's Cube" game is a single player redemption game based on the popular television game show.

The game features a wheel with various prize values, which the player is prompted to spin by turning a "Spin" knob. The "Spin" knob allows the player to control how much spin power will be applied to the wheel so they may attempt to land the wheel on the desired prize value. A spin power meter is displayed on the games video touch screen which, assists the player in determining how much spin power will be applied.

Once the player spins the wheel and it stops, the player is presented with a puzzle consisting of a word or words whose letters are concealed and a clue on the puzzle. The player then prompted to choose three (3) letters on a keyboard displayed on the games video touch screen. Letters which are not used in the puzzle are shaded out, and may not be chose, assuring each letter chosen will appear at least once in the puzzle. As each letter
