	:	INTERIM CONSENT ORDER
ROBERT CARTER, D.D.S.	:
TO PRACTICE DENTISTRY IN THE	:
STATE OF NEW JERSEY	:

This matter was opened to the New Jersey State Board of Dentistry upon receipt of investigative reports from the Enforcement Bureau, Division of Consumer Affairs, which disclosed that Robert Carter, D.D.S., provided dental treatment to a minor child, Gabriel Echevarria, who had a cardiac/respiratory arrest in the dental office following an extraction. It appears that respondent wishes to cooperate with the Board until such time as the investigation of this matter is completed.

THEREFORE, IT IS ON THE 14th DAY OF Sept., 1994;

ORDERED AND AGREED THAT:

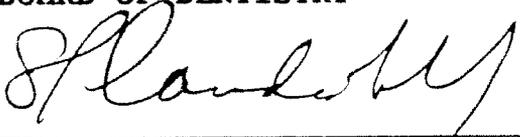

1. Respondent shall cease and desist from the use of any sedative or any procedure that requires sedation for dental patients until such time as he receives written authorization from the Board to do so.

2. By the terms of this Consent Order, respondent makes no admission as to any wrongdoing on his part and by the terms of this Consent Order, the Board shall not be precluded from pursuing any ongoing investigation with respect to respondent's practice of dentistry and from seeking any disciplinary action the Board may deem appropriate.
