

relief, fines and costs in the Superior Court of New Jersey, and respondent understanding the terms and impact of the within Order,

IT IS ON THIS 4th DAY OF February ,2000,

ORDERED AND AGREED:

1. Respondent shall cease and desist holding himself out to the public as a certified public accountant, a public accountant or as an accountant licensed in the State of New Jersey. He shall not use any stationery, rubber stamps, business cards, taped messages or other representations indicating he is an accountant licensed in New Jersey, nor shall he continue to advertise as a firm of accountants or list himself or his firm as certified public accountants, public accountants or tax and/or management accountants. He shall take affirmative steps to remove advertisements from all directories and provide the Board with written proof of that action.

2. Respondent shall pay costs of the investigation) in this matter to the State Board of Accountancy upon submission of an Affidavit of Costs from the Board's Executive Director.

3. Respondent specifically agrees and acknowledges that upon any further violation of this Order, the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey may after a summary hearing enter an Order retraining respondent from such violations upon the affidavit of the Attorney General and without notice to respondent.

STATE BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

By:
Alfonso Pisano, Esq., President

I have read the within Order and understand its terms. I consent to its entry and agree to be bound by its terms.

Randles Needham, Respondent