Civil Action

FINAL JUDGMENT AND CONSENT ORDER AS TO
DEFENDANT DAVID A. TALBOT

¹This action was commenced on behalf of former Chief of the New Jersey Bureau of Securities, Vincent J. Oliva. In accordance with R. 4:34-4, the caption has been revised to reflect the current Acting Chief of the New Jersey Bureau of Securities.

J.S.C., as confirmed by the entering of this Final Judgment and Consent Order.

Solely for the purpose of settling this proceeding, and without defendant Talbot admitting the allegations set forth in Plaintiff's Verified Complaint and without admitting or denying the findings set forth below, Amy Kopletan, the Acting Bureau Chief, makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

- a) From approximately March 2007 through October 2007, Talbot and his co-defendants raised money from at least ten (10) investors by selling unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts. Over $500,000.00 was raised from the sale of investment contracts, which promised investors high yield returns upon the successful conclusion of an Asset Enhancement Contract. No money was ever invested, as the investment did not exist;
- b) Talbot and others misappropriated investor funds by using it for their own (or their families') personal benefit;
- c) Talbot has been identified as a member or owner of His Glory and a manager of Prima Art. These entities were used by Talbot to launder investor money for his (or his family's) personal benefit;
- d) Talbot and others employed a scheme in violation of N.J.S.A. 49:3-52(a) to defraud investors by:

- i. failing to disclose or misrepresenting the nature and the risks of the investments to investors, when in truth and in fact there was no investment;
 - ii. continuing to mislead investors regarding their investments; and/or
 - iii. misappropriating investor funds for personal benefit and use;
- e) Talbot and others made materially false and misleading statements to investors in connection with the offer and sale of securities in violation of N.J.S.A. 49:3-52(b), including but not limited to:
- i. that the overseas venture was a secret and should not be disclosed to anyone;
 - ii. that the overseas venture involved a "trade" between countries;
 - iii. that the overseas venture would provide great returns varying from 12% and 35% per week (depending on the investor) of their investment for a minimum of forty (40) weeks;
 - iv. that there was a "high probability" of the successful conclusion of the "Asset Enhancement Contract";
 - v. that the investment contracts identified Talbot as a "Registered intermediary";

- vi. that the overseas venture was going to build ministries and have a huge "Kingdom" impact;
- vii. that a percentage of the profits were going to charitable purposes or humanitarian efforts; and/or
- viii. when the conclusion of the "Asset Enhancement Contract" would take place.

f) Talbot and others omitted material facts in statements to investors in connection with the offer and sale of securities in violation of N.J.S.A. 49:3-52(b), including but not limited to:

- i. the specific details pertaining to the "Asset Enhancement Contract";
- ii. that there was no investment;
- iii. that investor funds would be used for the personal benefit of the defendants and/or their families;
- iv. that the securities offered for sale by Talbot and or others, were not registered with the Bureau, exempt from registration or federally covered; and/or
- v. that neither Talbot nor Robert Schroy were registered with the Bureau;

g) Talbot and others engaged in conduct in violation of N.J.S.A. 49:3-52(c) by, among other things, misrepresenting the nature and risks of the investments, when in reality there was no investment, failing to return investor funds while misappropriating investors funds for personal expenses and use, operated as a fraud and/or deceit upon the investors; and

- h) At all relevant times, Talbot served as an unregistered agent of the issuer by selling and/or attempting to sell unregistered securities in violation of N.J.S.A. 49:3-56(a) and N.J.S.A. 49:3-60.

IT IS on this 15th day of April, 2009,

ORDERED AND AGREED:

PERMANENT INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

1. Defendants Talbot, Prima Art and His Glory, individually and by or through any corporation, business entity, agent, employee, broker, partner, officer, director, attorney, stockholder and/or any other person who is directly or indirectly under their control or direction, are permanently restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly violating the Securities Law and, specifically, from:

1. engaging in the securities business in New Jersey in any capacity, including, but not limited to, acting as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser representative or otherwise;
- ii. issuing, offering the sale or selling, offering to purchase or purchasing, distributing, promoting, advertising, soliciting, negotiating, advancing the sale of and/or promoting securities, or advising regarding the sale of any securities, in any manner to, from, or within the State of New Jersey; and

iii. engaging in the conduct described in Plaintiff's Verified Complaint filed in this matter.

DISGORGEMENT/RESTITUTION

2. Defendants Talbot, His Glory and Prima Art are jointly and severally liable to disgorge the sum of $133,500.00 ("Restitution Amount"), which is money due to investors for restitution, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 49:3-69(a). The Restitution Amount is based upon Talbot's accounting and certification that has been submitted to the Bureau Chief ("Talbot's Certification") and is incorporated by reference.

3. The Bureau Chief has relied on Talbot's Certification regarding Talbot's conduct and restitution obligation. If the Bureau Chief determines that Talbot's Certification, was false in any respect, then the Bureau Chief may, upon seven (7) business days written notice to Talbot (which notice shall constitute good and sufficient notice by overnight mail to Talbot at Talbot's last known address), move for an order vacating this Final Judgment and Consent Order. If the Court grants the motion, then: (a) the Bureau shall have one year from entry of an order granting the motion, to re-file a complaint or take administrative action against Talbot; and (b) Talbot shall be precluded from asserting any time defenses.

CIVIL MONETARY PENALTY

4. Defendant Talbot is assessed a civil monetary penalty, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 49:3-70.1, in the amount of $80,000.00.

FINAL JUDGMENT

5. As such, final judgment in the amount of $213,500.00 is entered against defendant David A. Talbot, representing $133,500.00 in restitution pursuant to N.J.S.A. 49:3-59(a)(2) and $80,000.00 as a civil monetary penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 49:3-70.1.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6. Payment of the disgorgement/restitution and civil monetary penalty is immediately due and payable and shall be made by attorney trust fund account check, certified check or other guaranteed funds, made payable to the "State of New Jersey, Bureau of Securities" and delivered to the attention of the Bureau Chief, at the following address: Bureau of Securities, 153 Halsey Street, 6th Floor, Newark, New Jersey 07102.

7. To the extent that restitution is paid, in whole or in part, by any defendant, then Talbot shall be entitled to credit toward their disgorgement/restitution obligation herein in equal amount.

8. This Final Judgment and Consent Order is immediately enforceable as to defendants Talbot, His Glory and Prima Art.

9. The parties represent that an authorized representative of each has signed this Final Judgment and Consent Order with full knowledge, understanding and acceptance of its terms and that this person has done so with authority to legally bind the respective party.

10. Nothing in this Final Judgment and Consent Order shall in any manner be construed to limit or affect the rights of any persons who may have a claim against defendants Talbot, His Glory or Prima Art. The amount of any such claim shall be reduced by any amounts paid to such persons from other sources, including any restitution paid pursuant to this Final Judgment and Consent Order.

11. As used in this Final Judgment and Consent Order, the plural shall include the singular and the singular shall include the plural. In addition, "or" and "and" shall be interpreted conjunctively.

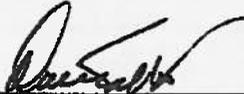

12. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the authority of the Attorney General to protect the interests of the State or the people of the State.

13. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, any signatures by the parties required for entry of this Final Judgment and Consent Order may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall together be one and the same Final Judgment and Consent Order.

Honorable Robert P. Contillo, J.S.C.
