REHMAN, Farooq, 25MA05178600, Complaint#109163
Michael Critchley, Esquire for Respondent
Susan Brown-Pietz, DAG for Prosecution
Debra W. Levine, DAG, Counseling

On or about November 2, 2015, the Acting Attorney General filed a Verified Complaint with accompanying, supporting documentation seeking the temporary suspension of his license and alleging the physician engaged in sexual contact with a patient under the guise of a physical examination. It was further alleged that his continued practice demonstrated a risk of harm to patients. The Respondent filed responsive papers denying the allegations. The matter was scheduled for oral argument before the Board at the November meeting, however, the matter was adjourned.

In considering the request for the adjournment, the full Board at its November 4th meeting voted unanimously to delegate full authority to a committee of the Board to hear this matter. The committee was delegated the authority to hear the matter and make a decision which was to be effective upon announcement at the end of the hearing. That decision, however, was subject to the Board's consideration and is being presented at this meeting on the papers for ratification, amendment or rejection of the attached Hearing Committee Report and Order filed November 23, 2015. There will not be oral argument or presentation by the parties.

V. NEW BUSINESS
