next month's meeting.

Dr. Jordan also welcomed Dr. Harry Lessig, who recently joined the Administrative Office as a Medical Consultant to the Board.

Dr. Jordan also reported out that the Executive Committee at its last meeting deliberated at some length on the permit application of Dr. Reggie Reason from St. George University School of Medicine who participated in the Global Scholars Program attending Northumbria during his first year of medical school. The Executive Committee reviewed the various submissions received on his behalf, materials and decisions on this issue from the past, as well as the regulations at issue. The Executive Committee, agreeing with the review performed by the Credentials Committee, reaffirmed its prior decisions that Dr. Reason was not eligible to receive a permit for his continued residency training here in New Jersey.
