FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I recently had a background check done for another agency (e.g. the Department of Education). Do I have to undergo the process again?

Yes, since the regulation concerning the dissemination of criminal history record information prohibits the sharing of the material for any reason other than the authorized and intended purpose for which it was gathered. (28 C.F.R. §20; N.J.A.C. 13:59-1.1 et seq.)

What if I previously completed the Certification and Authorization form and have gone through the Criminal History Record Background Check process for the Division of Consumer Affairs?

If you have already undergone the Criminal History Record Background Check process for the Division of Consumer Affairs, you must complete the Certification and Authorization form and include the date you were fingerprinted along with the name of the Board or Committee that required the Criminal History Record Background Check.
