The above mentioned game is approved for use in New Jersey as an amusement game, as defined in the Amusement Game Licensing Law, N.J.S.A. 5:8-100 et seq. ("Law"), and the regulations promulgated thereunder, N.J.A.C. 13:3-1.1 et seq. ("Regulations"). This approval is based upon information supplied by the applicant at the time of application for certification. The game must be operated in accordance with the specifications submitted and the terms of this certification. Any modification of the manufacturer's specifications or the specified method of play immediately voids this certification.

It is unlawful to operate any amusement game in the State of New Jersey without a valid certification.

This certification is conditioned upon the following:

Claim Jumper is a four player position coin drop game. The coin inserted passes through a chute in an attempt to time the drop of the coin into the dump slot or bed of one of the 18 train cars. If the coin goes into the bed of the car tickets will be awarded based on the ticket light lit at the time. If the coin enters the dump slot, one the coin is recognized the car will back up to the dump hole and unload all of its coins. Each coin will represent a certain number of tickets to be awarded.

- 1.) The maximum price to play shall not exceed the values set forth in N.J.A.C. 13:3-3.4.
- 2.) Payout must occur immediately in the form of tokens or tickets.
- 3.) The chute and the play field shall be free from any debris and obstruction that would interfere with the coin travel.
- 4.) Game shall be installed and maintained according to manufacturer specifications.

This certification is not a license to operate the captioned gambling device. The device may only be operated in a location specifically approved for the operation of amusement games pursuant to the Law and Regulations.

The Commission reserves the right to suspend, revoke or modify this certification upon notice to the manufacturer and/or applicant.
