GAME DESCRIPTION

Gravity Hill is a single player redemption game. The game is played by taking hold of the handlebars on the device. The handlebars are attached to the playfield in the shape of a mountain containing curved levels. Upon the start of the game, a secondary prize is awarded, regardless of the outcome of the game. A ball, which starts at the bottom of the playfield, is then moved by the player through a rocking motion using the handlebars up, towards the top of the "mountain". If the player get the ball to the very top hole, the grand prize is awarded, otherwise an additional secondary prize can be awarded through the smaller prize hole.
