

BOARD OF RESPIRATORY CARE
SOMERSET CONFERENCE ROOM
6TH FLOOR
PUBLIC SESSION AGENDA
October 6, 2009
10:00 a.m

. I. APPROVAL OF MINUTES of September 15, 2009

II. OLD BUSINESS/REAGENDIZED

a. I/M/O Life Support Technologies, Inc.- Awaiting response from James Karaman, of Virtua West Jersey Hospital, Berlin, New Jersey. (No insert)

III. NEW BUSINESS

a. E-mail from Greg Bottoms, inquiring as to whether his company which makes the Inogen One, a portable oxygen concentrator would need any additional licensing to sell to Home Medical Equipment Providers in New Jersey. He already has a Drug and Medical Device Certification of Registration as a Manufacturer from the New Jersey Dept. Of Health and Senior Services Consumer and Environmental Health Services.

b. E-mail from Santosh Kumar, inquiring as whether he is eligible for New Jersey respiratory care licensure . He stated that has completed a four years Bachelors Degree in Respiratory Therapy (BSET) from a recognized Medical University in India. He also did Advance Level Associate Science in Respiratory Therapy (ASRT) from California College for Health Science, Salt Lake City, Utah. In 2005, he had MOU with CCHS, IU and Manipal University to offer ASRT Diploma for the BSRT students of Manipal University through distance mode, but the Clinical Evaluation done by the CCHS, IU appointed external examiner (RRT) from Us.

c. Board of Respiratory Care FY2009 Budget Report (Final)

d. Board of Respiratory Care Total Revenues for August, 2009.

IV. INFORMATIONAL/FYI

a. Propaganda and Reality.

By Henry L. John, BS, RPSGT, CRT, CPFT.

A look into messages from AARC.

b. BRPT unveils “Certified Polysomnographic Technician” Certificate.

c. Board of Respiratory Care meeting dates for 2010.

V. LEGISLATION/REGULATIONS

a. Report to the State Board of Respiratory Care Second Quarter March 1, 2009 - June 30, 2009.

Assembly Bill A 853, requires certain persons to report suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation against vulnerable adults.

Assembly Bill A 3934 Aca (1R) concerns use of health information technology products.

VI. PUBLIC COMMENT

None.

VII. OTHER BUSINESS

None.

VIII. ADJOURNMENT