REPORT OF THE BOARD PRESIDENT – DR. PATRICIA A. MURPHY:

Dr. Murphy presented the 2010 Annual Report (Report Attached).

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR – GEORGE J. HEBERT:

George Hebert reported:

- 2011 Meeting Calendar – The Board discussed possible changes to the meeting dates.
- 2011 Committee Assignments – Each Board member is required to sign up to participate in a Committee to ensure that the work of the Board flows effectively.
- 2011 Goals – The Education Subcommittee had its last meeting in Dec 2010 to discuss proposed revisions to the regulations and NCSBN is initiating changes to the proposed National APRN Consensus Model.
- The Division of Consumer Affairs has implemented two initiatives that will assist the Boards with heavy work flows. The Metro Scanning document scanning project is progressing. Archived files and currently active files will be scanned. When complete, this should streamline data retrieval and licensure processes. The second project includes a call center that answers the high volume of calls received monthly. The staff manning the center provides basic information; more complex questions are referred to Board staff. The call center is currently handing approximately 90% of the 2000 + calls received per month.

INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES:

1. Article by Steven R. Scanlan, MD regarding Suboxone: Concerns Behind the Miracle.
3. Article from the Industry & Government Relations Committee regarding The Big Three: A Side by Side Matrix Comparing Hospital Accrediting Agencies.
